

Alphonse Wright

Alphonse Wright has more than twenty years of Human Resources experience and twenty plus years sales experience including financial planning, health insurance and as a mortgage broker, dedicated to meeting the needs of small business and individuals. As part of his commitment to give back to the community, he participated on a number of inner-city boards as well as the Connecticut State Board of Education. In Norwalk, he was Excel's Chairman of the Board. Excel is an organization that helps at-risk students graduate high school and attend college. As a result of Mr. Wright's willingness to represent his community and engage the political process, he received a letter of recognition from President George W. Bush, Congresswoman Nancy Johnson and Governor M. Jodi Rell. In addition to serving on the AAAC Board, Mr. Wright is secretary of his Masonic Lodge in West Hartford.

Mr. Wright is a U.S. Air Force veteran and a graduate of Boston University. He has a son who lives out of state and a daughter who passed away almost two years ago. Mr. Wright was appointed to the African-American Affairs Commission by House Republican Leader, Lawrence F. Cafero, Jr. in 2007.
