Testimonials

The different characters resonated with the students and staff in attendance. Students identified with both the bully and the victim. Stand UP & Speak OUT, along with our Restorative Practices, are showing students positive ways so that they can stand up and speak out against all types of bullying.

—Dr. Miguel Cardona, United States Secretary of Education

Created by award-winning composer, Jill Nesi, Stand UP features outstanding performances by many talented Shoreline students ... The show helps students understand both the causes and impacts of bullying, fosters self-awareness and decision skills, and challenges students to reflect on their own experiences.

—Ted Kennedy Jr.

Stand UP & Speak OUT is the message we all need to hear and a call to action for the relational kindness we all need to follow. The teens who raise their voices are truly inspirational and left the audience in awe!
