When Ends Don't Meet: Supporting ALICE Households Post-Pandemic and Beyond

On Monday, May 3rd from 2:00PM - 3:00PM, Connecticut United Ways and the Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity will host a virtual event focused on ALICE households.

Click HERE to register for this event.

Event Details: The COVID-19 Pandemic exposed and exacerbated the financial fragility of thousands of households across Connecticut. As our state recovers, ALICE (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) households are still struggling to make ends meet. Please join us as we highlight some of the concrete steps Connecticut can take to better support ALICE, and how proposed legislation could help stabilize our ALICE Families.

When: Monday, May 3rd, 2021 from 2PM- 3PM

Where: Register HERE for this virtual event

Featuring:

- Bryce Covert, contributing journalist at the New York Times
- Senator Martin Looney, Senate President Pro Tempore
- Representative Sean Scanlon, Co-Chair, Finance Revenue and Bonding Committee
- Representative Brandon McGee, Co-Chair, Housing Committee
- Melissa Stanley, Program Director, Boys & Girls Club of Stamford

Note: Members of the Capitol Media are highly encouraged to attend

This event is co-hosted by Connecticut United Ways and the Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity.

About Connecticut United Ways

Connecticut United Ways advance the common good by creating opportunities for all, with a particular focus on education, income/financial security, health, and basic needs – the building blocks for a good quality of life. We engage people and organizations throughout our communities who bring passion, expertise, and resources needed to get things done, and we invite everyone to be part of the change.

About the Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity (CWCSEO)

The mission of the Commission is to inform and engage all policy makers about constituent needs for women, children and their families, seniors and the African American, Asian Pacific-American, Latino and Puerto Rican populations in Connecticut. CWCSEO is a nonpartisan agency with a data driven, cross-cultural approach to policy innovation. Our main goal is to eliminate disparities by identifying opportunities, building connections and promoting change.
